When I Remember...

Lady Mary helps Master Peter remember his dad and all the moments when he felt happy or sad with him. Use markers, colored pencils, crayons, stickers, and other craft supplies to write about things that remind you of your person who died or draw a memory that's important to you.

A large, empty rounded rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for children to write or draw their memories. It is positioned in the center of the page.

Your Family Crest

A family crest is a powerful symbol that reflects a family's history, values, and identity. It represents the warmth, hope, and unique story of each family. Using markers, colored pencils, crayons, stickers, and other craft materials, you can create a personalized crest which offers a special opportunity to honor your person who died.
